NOTES FROM SESSION 5

Discussion during the fifth meeting started with an invitation for all PLC members to the annual Brownfields job training grantee meeting in Alexandria, VA on August 26th and 27th. Details and registration materials have been sent to each member.

Thanks for materials contributed by Paula Paris (JFY Networks) regarding labor market assessment and the work JFY is doing regarding energy related jobs.

1. A DACUM for entry level -Residential Energy Auditor is critical for curriculum development, establishing instructional goals and objectives.
2. Methodology for conducting a local labor market assessment targeted to potential stakeholders and employers-first step in development of any training program.

Post meeting contributions by others are appreciated. Please copy to all PLC members. Thanks.

Guy Zaczek – Introduced a new topic for the PLC to consider.

Curricula for Energy Auditors and Weather Technicians – any ideas or contributions would be appreciated. Send them via email to PLC members.

The next PLC session #6 will begin at 1:00 pm Central on Wednesday, July 22nd.
Session leader: Open discussion
Topic – Labor market assessment continued– Green Jobs Certification-Curricula
